ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Finally, I would like to thank everyone who made this thesis possible.

First, and foremost I would like to thank my supervisors Prof. Dr. Lydia Krabbendam and Dr. Sukhi Shergill.

Lydia, het was geweldig om als jouw AIO op het methodologisch en geografisch veelzijdige VIDl project 'trust versus paranoia' te werken. Hartelijk dank voor alles wat je me leerde, voor jouw top begeleiding en dat je er ook remotely altijd was voor mijn vragen en zorgen en motiverende gesprekken in tijden van onderzoeks- of recruitmentdipjes in Maastricht en Londen. Bedankt voor jouw vertrouwen in mij en voor de mogelijkheden die ik de afgelopen vier jaar heb gekregen. Het is erg fijn om met jou samen te werken en om van jou te leren en ik ben blij dat dit de komende tijd zo blijft.

Sukhi, thank you for having me at your CSI lab for a generously extended 24 months, for your dedicated supervision, your advice, your tennis racket, elephant jokes and for making me see things from a different perspective. I've learned a lot. It has been a pleasure to work with you.

I would also like to thank:

Prof. Dr. Jim van Os & Prof Dr. Inez Myin-Germeys, iedereen die aan COGPID meegewerkt heeft, met name ook de proefpersonen en natuurlijk de Maastricht 'bunch' AIO collega's van SP voor leuke en leerzame tijden in Limburg. Merci!

The co-authors Prof. Dr. Arno Riedl, Dr. Mari Dominguez, Dr. Wolfgang Viechtbauer, Prof. Dr. David Penn, Dr. Dan Joyce, Dr. Martin Strobel, Prof. Dr. Sarah-Jayne Blakemore, Dr. Iroise Dumontheil en Arijia for interesting and inspiring collaborations and GROUP for letting me use their impressive dataset.

The reading committee of this thesis and the members of the opposition.

The dedicated and enthusiastic master students Eefje, Mirjam & Farah for their help with the projects in Maastricht and London.

The SP and the VU offices for remote & direct help with uncountable letters, packages, scans, questionnaires and declaration forms.

Sophie for making this beautiful cover.

Mijn studiegenoten, PhD collega's & vooral vrienden – Rebecca en Margreet meine Paranimfen und Felsen in der Brandung, Dina, Nicole, Anne en Elissa - het is bijzonder dat we niet alleen samen de research master meegemaakt hebben maar ook de PhD. Ik verheug me al op future samenwerking, office sharing, congressen en gezellige avonden in Rotterdam, Kiel, Aachen, Amsterdam, Maastricht, Geneve en Australië.

The London people - Natasza, vielen Dank für Kaffepausen, die gemütlichen Abende, die geboxfitteten, ungemütlichen Abende und die durchgetanzten Nächte. Jamsi, social butterfly & adoptive parent of foreigners at the IOP, thanks for always being up for lunch, beer in the evening and a chat. Rebekah, Stefi, Lana, Valentina, Astrid and everyone at the CSI lab – thank you for making living and working in London so enjoyable.

Paula, meine Blume in der manchmal trockenen Forschungswüste, danke für die wunderbare Zusammenarbeit & Freundschaft in Maastricht, London und Amsterdam.

De nieuwe EDUN collega's, in het bijzonder Imke en Nikki. Jullie hebben de laatste maanden van opschrijven verlicht. Marianne, bedankt voor de super RSI hulp.

And outside the universities...

Danke - Tini, meine Liebste, dass du immer für mich da bist- egal wo, wann und wie. Elchen, dass du unbeirrt alle Besuchsrekorde brichst. Jantje, Kathrin, Wiebke, Anna - für eure Besuche hier und da und dass ihr es immer wieder schafft euch neue Adressen und Telefonnummern von mir zu merken. Groningers - Miri, Ilva & Kiki – fijn dat jullie er zijn en nog veel fijner dat jullie nu voor 66.6% weer om de hoek wonen!

Linda, Bubu, Lukas & Ella – Vielen Dank für euren Support und für die wunderbaren Filme und Mails von den Abenteuern in Uffing- ihr macht mich froh.

Mama & Peti - Danke, dass ihr immer mein Zuhause seid, für euer Interesse, eure Geduld, Ermunterungen, spannendes Pilze sammeln und essen, gemütliches Beisammensein im Wald, Fahrradtouren, Autoversorgung und gelegentliche Einkaufs-Finanzspritzen. Liebe Mama, danke für unzählige Heimat-Päckchen mit Schokolade, Keksen, warmen Socken und lieben Karten. Ohne dich wär' das alles nicht gegangen.

Charlie, you are without a doubt one of the best things this PHD got me. Thank you for making London home, for your boundless mental support during the write up and for proofreading and lay-outing this thesis when my arm was on strike.

Amsterdam, Juli 2012.

CURRICULUM VITAE

Anne-Kathrin Fett was born October 20th 1980 in Bremen, Germany. She graduated from secondary school (Abitur) in 2000. After an interlude of internships in child psychiatry and studying Sociology, Philosophy and History at Bremen University, she moved to the Netherlands in 2002 to study Psychology at the Rijksuniversiteit Groningen. She graduated in 2005 and relocated to Maastricht to take a Research Master in Neuroscience, Neuropsychology and Psychopathology. During her master studies she spent 5 months at the John Moores University in Liverpool to conduct her master thesis research and 3 months at the University Medical Centre Hamburg Eppendorf to do a clinical internship and her minor thesis research. After her graduation in 2007 (cum laude) she spent a couple of months at the Neuroscience & Human Performance Lab at the Jacobs University Bremen. In 2008 she started her PhD at the School of Mental Health and Neuroscience, Department of Psychiatry and Neuropsychology at Maastricht University under supervision Prof. Dr. Jim van Os and Dr. Lydia Krabbendam. In April 2009 she transferred to the Department of Educational Neuroscience of the VU University Amsterdam. From February 2010 until 2012 Anne worked with her co-promotor Dr. Sukhi Shergill at the Cognition, Schizophrenia and Imaging Lab at the King's College Institute of Psychiatry in London. She is now working as a post doc researcher at the Department of Educational Neuroscience at the VU University Amsterdam.
